

HORSES

Throughout history, the horse has been a universal symbol of freedom, strength and nobility.

As we approach the Year of the Horse in 2026, Lladró brings together a curated selection of its most iconic equine sculptures. Spanning both classic and contemporary styles, the collection draws on the rich symbolism of the horse in Chinese and Spanish culture — embodying qualities such as vitality, elegance, energy and grace.

Presented as a unified display, these creations celebrate a timeless muse and the enduring bond between the horse and humankind.

MASTERY AND EXCELLENCE

The Karabakh horse is one of Azerbaijan's national symbols. Gracious, sure-footed and hardy, it embodies the spirit of the country's traditions and its aspiration to continue advancing. Our artists have taken inspiration from these magnificent specimens and recreated them in porcelain, paying meticulous attention to the finer details. From the well-defined expressive head, the straight profile, and vivid intelligent eyes, all its anatomical features have been masterfully sculpted.

An unbeatable creation conceived with utmost precision and detail, inspired by horses from the Royal Andalusian School of Equestrian Art in Jerez, Spain.

KARABAKH Horse

inspired by ancient Azerbaijani traditions, the horse's back is covered by a Karabakh carpet with its famous unique distinctive patterns. A combination of metallic reds, greens, blues, whites, and gold was chosen to recreate their coloring. The saddle, etched by hand with a delicate floral design, is decorated with golden luster, and to capture the authentic color of these world horses, a dark copper brown enamel was created especially. The bit and straps are in gold-plated brass while the reins are natural leather. All the details have been carefully studied to faithfully portray this strong horse with undeniable class.
